OVER-NIGHT WIRELESS To the Advertiser

The travelers aboard the Hamburg liner Cleveland, which arrived at San Francisco today from Honolulu after a world-cruise, were treated to a thrilling spectacle as the vessel came up the bay. Aviator Elias Christofersen flew over the Cleveland in his hydroplane and dropped a letter of welcome on the deck from Mayor Rolph. The daring sky pilot then circled the vessel several times and alighted gracefully on the bay. The Cleveland's passengers were greeted at the dock by Mayor Rolph and a delegation of exposition officials, who welcomed the travelers with hearty handshakes and invited them to an auto ride through the city and to the fair site tomorrow.

The Westminster police court magistrate fined Jane Melford eight dollars on the charge of operating a bus from which leaden missiles containing the "votes for women" discs were discharged from slingshots. She refused to pay, preferring a jail sentence, but her father met the fine. Still protesting she was released from custody. Mrs. Pankhurst, the suffragette leader, today declared that the release of Mesdames Drummond and Despard showed that men clubbed together to pay their fines, being unable to endure the thought of women being subjected to the horrors of a hunger strike.

As a result of the activities of Cardinal Merry Del Val, papal secretary of state, announcement was made from the vatican that the international games of the Federation of Catholic Gymnastic Societies will be held in Rome in September. The cardinal himself is an excellent rifle shot, tennis player, swimmer, oarsman and motorboat driver. It has been under his stimulus that nearly all of the Catholic athletic sports have been organized.

After a four days' discussion, the house of lords rejected the Irish home rule bill by a vote of 326 to 69. Demonstrations are feared. The bill brought out the greatest number of peers in several years.

Marshall Black, former State Senator and head of the Palo Alto Building & Loan Association, when arraigned in the superior court here today pleaded guilty to two counts of embezzlement.

J. G. Hill, a motorman, on an Oakland, Cal., carline, has fallen heir to nearly one hundred thousand dollars as the result of a division of property in Kansas City. He says he will continue at his work until it is necessary for him to go back to take possession of his share of the estate, but that the inheritance will make little difference in his mode of living.

Attorney-General Wickersham today gave an opinion that the present vicepower to reorganize the customs service in accordance with the act passed at the last session of congress will permit the treasury department plan of reorganization to be carried out practically as originally ordered.

Lieutenant-Governor Wallace of California ordered Senator Caminetti under arrest today for refusing to take his seat during the debate on the Sanford resolution endorsing a six-year term for the president. Caminetti refused to yield to Senator Gates, who rose to a point of order.

That Little Hacking Cough

Hard coughs are bad enough, to be sure. But it's often the little, hacking, tickling, persistent cough that means the most, especially when there is a history of weak lungs in the family. What should be done? Ask your doctor. He knows. Ask him about the formula on the label of every bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Ask him if this medicine has his full approval for throat and lung troubles. Then do as he says.
